Wailuku Hospital Narrowly Escapes Destruction By Fire

MRS. CASE REMOVED DURING CONFLAGRATION

(Special Bulletin Wireless)
Wailuku, Maui, July 26.—The building opposite the Wailuku Hospital burned down last evening.
The hospital was saved by the volunteer fire company.
Mrs. Dan Case, who was operated on at the hospital yesterday was moved out, the danger of the destruction of the hospital was so great. Mrs. Case has apparently suffered no setback on account of the excitement.
The firemen did splendid work and undoubtedly saved the hospital. The damage done by the fire will not amount to more than fifty dollars.

HATTIE SAFFREY GOES TO FIRST PLACE AND MANY CHANGES RESULT

If you want to know who will make up the Lucky Six you will have to wait till the last count, or put in one hundred thousand votes as a guarantee.

There are several people who will tell you they know all about it and they know just where their favorites will land. They may tell you they know Daisy Todd would be dethroned and put back to second place. They may look wise and claim they knew all about what the friends of Miss Saffrey were doing. Perhaps they did, but we doubt it.

This week's count has created consternation in the ranks of the contestants for the greatest trip any young woman of Hawaii ever took. The total vote cast was big, Miss Saffrey and Miss Aloiau combined throwing over one hundred and fifty thousand, and it is a remarkable fact that had Miss Aloiau cast three votes more, her quota would have been identical with Miss Saffrey's.

The shuffling under the influence of more votes is very interesting. Hattie Saffrey goes from sixth place to the very top of the list, where she leads by a margin of ten thousand. Daisy Todd drops to second place notwithstanding over fifteen thousand were deposited to her credit during the week.

Callie Lucas, the leading Honolulu girl, drops to third place, although her total vote this week was more than forty-five thousand.

Rose Aloiau, the popular young school teacher of Kauai moves from seventh place, where last week some of her opponents had counted her out of the race, up to the fourth position. She cast a large vote and is said to have great reserve strength. Her margin is not a very large one, Miss Lemon of Honolulu following her in the fifth place less than a thousand votes behind.

Then comes Katie Sadler of Haka-lau, who is one of those to step back this week. She drops from a good third to the sixth number on the list. Her record was twenty thousand votes this week. Lillian Mundon went down the line with Miss Sadler and when the votes were all in fell in seventh place, just outside the Lucky Six. Her vote, however, was very light, less than three thousand, which doubtless accounts for it and demonstrates that she is not down and out by any means.

It will be noticed that the most notable changes are among the very large numbers. The others are close enough, however, to make it impossible to count on a "sure thing" for any of them. Kuulei Hapai, of Hilo, is not out of the contest. Her friends will not allow her to remain in the background when the final votes are deposited. Nor is Emma Rose and Irene Boyd of Honolulu to be put aside without a second thought. Each of these three is within easy hailing distance. Nor would it be safe to predict that no one of those below the hundred thousand list will come within the limit of six on the last day.

Miss Boyd received twenty-seven

LAND QUESTION THE MOST IMPORTANT

Frear Intimates That
He May Make Change
In Policy

Chief Justice Frear since his return from Kauai has been spending much of his time in outlining for himself a policy for his administration as Governor. There are several weighty problems coming up to be solved within the next few years, he says. One of the most important of these is the land problem.

"Upon the proper conduct of the land office," said Frear this afternoon, depends to a very large extent the prosperity of Hawaii and the number and class of immigrants we are to get here to make citizens of. The Land Office is about the most important department of the Government and it will be necessary to have a good man at the head of it if we are to accomplish all I hope we shall."

"Of course I have outlined to some extent my land policy, which, naturally, will be in line with the President's looking toward the settling of the land with independent men who want to make homes for themselves, and toward the increase of diversified industries. But in carrying out this policy I do not want to work any injury on the industries already established. Their prosperity should be continued."

The Chief Justice looked doubtful when asked as to the probable results of attempts to Americanize Hawaii. "That," he said, "is a matter which only time can decide."

"Do you think," asked the interviewer, "that the Territory will ever, under present conditions and policies, become thoroughly Americanized rather than Orientalized?" The Judge smiled doubtfully and replied that that was a question that he could not answer.

Regarding department heads, the Chief Justice said that in all probability whatever changes he might make—if he made any—would be made soon after his inauguration, though not necessarily so. He intimated that he intended to make a decided change in the policy of the present administration. He did not say so in so many words, but that might be gathered from the general drift of what he said. It is probable," he said, "that most of the present department heads would be willing to change their policies to conform with the policy of the new administration."

ATTENDED THE "ROLLERS"

In spite of the denial of Rev. W. Turner, who is the head of the mission which is known locally as the "Holy Rollers," who states that Miss Swenson, the young lady who went insane yesterday, did not at any time attend his meetings, it has been definitely established that she did. She has been seen at them by one of her best personal friends and also by at least one police officer. The very nature of her outbreak immediately suggested the "Holy Roller" meetings to anyone who has attended these.

COURT DISMISSES SUNDAY HUNTERS

Prosecution Must Show
Specific Common
Nuisance

Judge Whitney this morning delivered his decision in the case of the Sunday hunters who were arrested on the complaint of A. S. Cleghorn on a charge of disturbing the Sabbath. Owing to the bearing which this decision would have on all Sunday shooting local sportsmen have been much interested in the outcome of this case, as it might tend to stop Sunday shooting to a great extent, or at least expose the hunters to a lot of trouble.

MYSTERIOUS SESSION OF CABINET HELD

Atkinson Confers In Secret With Heads
Of Departments

There was a meeting of the Cabinet in the Robin-egg-blue chamber at 11:45 this morning. It was short, lasting only till 12:15, but appeared to be animated.
The meeting was called by Acting Governor Atkinson and all the members of the Governor's cabinet were present. An atmosphere of mystery surrounds the council and nobody will state what were the subjects under discussion. Acting Governor Atkinson refuses to discuss the matter.
